

Mrs. T. R. Fellers

Mrs. T. R. Fellers died January 25 in St. Mary's hospital in Port Arthur. She became critically ill while visiting her sister, Mrs. W. B. Childress of Crockett. After emergency treatment at a local hospital she was transferred to the hospital in Port Arthur.

Her illness was diagnosed as a blood clot on her lung caused by a heart attack.

Burial was in the Greenlawn Memorial Park, January 26.

Mrs. Fellers is survived by her husband; a son, Jimmie; daughter, Mrs. Harry Hebert; five grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. W. B. Childress of Crockett; two brothers, Ernest Newlin of Sinton, and Wesley Newlin of Port Lavaca.

From the collection donated to the Houston County Historical Commission. This collection was part of the papers that Mrs. Nannie English had. The original is preserved to protect it from further damage.
