John C. Fifer

John C. Fifer died at the home of his brother, Forest, on Sunday afternoon about 7 o'clock. Deceased had been in bad health for a year. He was from Tennessee and worked for years as a compositor on the Memphis Daily Appeal. He came to Texas about eighteen months ago. His remains, accompanied by his brother, J. B. Fifer, were taken to Memphis for interment. Deceased was a nephew of Colonel Galloway, at one time editor and proprietor of the Memphis Appeal.
