

HCC 8-26-1999

W. H. Fifer

THOMAS RAYMOND
FIFER

Mr. Thomas Raymond Fifer, age 51, of Walnut Springs, passed away Tuesday, Aug. 17, 1999, at his brother's home near Walnut Springs. Mr. Fifer was born Feb. 20, 1948, in Wharton to John Edward and Echo Maxine Fifer. He attended public schools in Wharton and later attended Pasadena Community College in Houston. Mr. Fifer was a veteran of the United States Navy and was also a petroleum operator and trucker. During his career, Mr. Fifer worked in numerous petroleum industry capacities as a driller and consulting engineer for K&S Drilling Co., Stanley Well Service, Brown Oil Tool Co., and later as a driver and terminal manager for Blue Diamond Distributors in Atlanta, Ga. He was also employed with Shippers Choice in Indianapolis, In. Most recently he was employed with Watkins Motor Freight in Knoxville, Tn. He founded and served as CEO of the Christian Cattle Company of Texas in Walnut Springs until his death. Mr. Fifer was a loving father, brother and uncle who will be greatly missed by his family and friends. His Christian charity and generosity will be remembered and cherished by all who knew him.

Survivors include Children Pamela, Helena, Thomas, Jr. and Beth Ann; twin sister Echo May Mason; brothers John Fifer, Jr., and James Forrest Fifer; sisters-in-law Linda Fifer and Judy Fifer; six grandchildren; numerous nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Graveside funeral services for Mr. Fifer were held Saturday, Aug. 21, 1999, at 4:00 p.m. in the Glenwood Cemetery in Crockett.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home