

September 23, 2007

Sarah M. Findley

LIVINGSTON – Funeral services for Sarah M. Findley, 54, were held Saturday, Sept. 29, 2007, in the Cochran Funeral Home Chapel, with the Rev. Rick Rankin, the Rev. Gerald Reeves and the Rev. Kevin Kleinhenz officiating. Burial followed in Big Sandy Cemetery.

Mrs. Findley died Tuesday, Sept. 25, in Memorial Hermann Hospital, Houston. She was born Jan. 29, 1953 in Waco, the daughter of Raul and Guadalupe Gasca Meza. She was preceded in death by her parents; daughter, Misty Spring Meza; grandchild, Joseph Wayne Ramirez and brother, Bobby Meza.

Survivors include her husband, Edward Findley of Livingston; sons and daughters-in-law, Edward Allen and Adron Findley of Livingston, Lewis and Tish Findley of Livingston and Edwards Wayne Findley II of Livingston; daughters and sons-in-law, Sarah Rene and Victor Vega of Livingston and Gina and Tony Salas of Fort Worth; brothers, Roy Meza of Waco, Rick Meza of Austin, Paul Meza of Fort Worth and Gilbert Martinez of Denver, Colo.; sisters, Hope La Mont of Fort Worth and Nina Estrada of Fort Worth and 15 grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Roman Reeves, Doug Walding, Dennis Findley, Mat Findley, Demtrice Cooper and Louis Fresquez. Honorary pallbearers were Roland Reeves, Bobby Meza, Eddie Harvey, Jerry La Mont, Allen Findley and Ernie McClendon.