Thomas Calvin Tom' Fleming

TRINITY - Services for Thomas Calvin "Tom" Fleming, 74, were held at 7 p.m. Sunday, July 23, 2006, in the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity with the Rev. James Pease officiating. Mr. Fleming died Friday, July 21, in Crockett.

He was born in Wayne County, Ill., the son of Frank Farran and Claudia Udine Carr Fleming. A graduate of Fairfield High School, he served in the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict.

He studied accounting in business college and retired as a vice president with Gala Industries. He previously served as a vice president with Hi-Flier Manufacturing, the largest kite maker in the world.

Mr. Fleming enjoyed writing and loved spending time with his family.

Survivors include his wife of 54 years, Wilma Lee Fleming and friend, Charles Ogden; a daughter, Kathleen Ann Baxter and Steve Burgan; a son, Calvin Lee Fleming and Pamela Mischke; two brothers, Max L. Fleming and Robert Fleming; two grandchildren, Angela Kay Matthews and Ryan Meyer Fleming; a great-granddaughter, Emma Rose Matthews; and a number of nieces, nephews and friends.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
