

Henry Flenoury

LIVINGSTON – Funeral services for Henry Flenoury, 74, of Livingston were held Monday, March 19, 2007, at the First Assembly of God, with Pastor Chris Borden officiating. Interment followed in Greenfield Cemetery.

Mr. Flenoury died March 14 in Memorial Medical Center – Livingston.

He was born April 28, 1932 in Springhill, La., the son of Dan Flenoury Sr. and Ruthie Lee Dunn.

Survivors include his children, Nazerine (Earnest) Jackson of Livingston, Bobby (Roberta) Jackson of Houston, Tommy Ray Jackson, Arnetta (Minister Edward) Jackson, Archie (Effie) Jackson and Otis Jackson, all of Livingston, Billy (Kim) Jackson of Kirbyville, Darrell Harrell of Lufkin, Timothy Prescott of Livingston and Kathy Wyatt of Livingston; special nephew, B.C. (Jennifer) Harrell Jr. of Livingston; sisters, Louise (John) Barrow of Cullen, La. and Ruthie Mae Robinson of Cullen, La.; brothers, Dan (Evangelist Ruth) Flenoury Jr. and Shelly Flenoury, all of Livingston and Freddie (Thelma) Flenoury of Pine Bluff, Ark.; aunt, Dessie Flenoury of Cullen, La. and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

Pallbearers were B.C. Harrell Jr., Dan Flenoury III, Eric Jackson, Earnest Jackson Jr., Richard Flenoury and Mark Jackson. Honorary pallbearers were Dan Flenoury Jr., Shelly Flenoury, Freddie Flenoury, Tommy Jackson, Earnest Jackson Sr., Rev. Edward Jackson, Archie Jackson, Otis Jackson, Billy Jackson, Darrell Harrell and B.C. Harrell Sr. Duncan Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.