

Thursday, June 9, 1966

Paul Faver Foster

Mr. Paul Faver Foster, 37, of Houston died June 5, in a local hospital, of injuries sustained in an automobile wreck on the loop in Crockett.

Mr. Foster was owner of Foster Wrecking Service. He was born Nov. 14, 1928, in Tampa, Fla. and was a veteran of World War II.

The remains wre shipped from Houston by air on Monday to York, S. C. for services and burial there. Services were to be at the York Funeral Home, with burial in Bethesda Cemetery there.

Survivors include the father, Guy Foster of York, S. C., and one sister.

Arrangements were in charge of Callaway Funeral Home.

From the collection donated to the Houston County Historical Commission. This collection was part of the papers that Mrs. Nannie English had. The original is preserved to protect it from further damage.