EUGENIA
TUNSTALL FRANCIS

Funeral services for Mrs. Eugenia English Tunstall Francis, 84, were held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 8 at Rader Funeral Home Chapel in Longview with the Rev. Jonathan Jehorek officiating. Burial was in Rosewood Park. Mrs. Francis died Monday, Nov. 6 in a Longview hospital.

She was born Oct. 8, 1916, in Crockett, the seventh of 10 children of Vicory Barker and Emma English Tunstall. Her parents and her siblings, except for one sister, preceded her in death. Mrs. Francis graduated from Crockett High School and attended C.I.A. in Denton. She moved to Longview in 1935 to live with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs.

Oliver Daniel. On Nov. 27, 1936, she was married at the First Methodist Church in Longview to Dr. Thomas Bramlette Francis, longtime Longview dentist. They were married 61 years and were the parents of two daughters. After the death of her husband in 1998, Mrs. Francis moved to Westminster Place, where she enjoyed the many new friends she made there.

Mrs. Francis was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, the Junior League of Longview, the Garden Study Club and a charter member of the East Texas Dental Society Auxiliary. She was a homemaker, a devoted wife and a loving mother and grandmother. She possessed a gentle and helpful spirit that won her the love and respect of a multitude of friends.

Survivors include two daughters and a son-in-law, Percid Francis and Dr. Al Stevens of Longview and Eugenia Francis Cartmell of Mission Hills, Kan.; her grandchildren, Lex Stevens of Boston, Mass., Thomas Stevens of Cumming, Ga., Scott Stevens and his wife, Lainey, of Longview; Cathy Cartmell Kerr and her husband, Matt of Mission Hills, Kan., Tom Cartmell and his wife, Shelley; of Mission Hills, Kan.; four great-grandchildren, Emily, Mitchell and Tommy Kerr and Trent Cartmell; one sister Dolly Tunstall Morton of Crockett; two sisters-in-law, Kathryn Tunstall and Beth Sherman, both of Crockett; and 12 nieces and nephews.

Memorials may be made to the First Presbyterian Church of Longview or to a charity of the donor's choice.
