

Trinity Standard
May 18, 2006

Grover
Cleveland 'G.C.'
Freeman

TRINITY - Services for Grover Cleveland "G.C." Freeman, 67, of Trinity were held at 10 a.m. Saturday, May 13, 2006, at the Burning Hope Baptist Church with the Rev. Jim Parrish officiating.

Burial followed in the Riverside Pioneer Cemetery.

Mr. Freeman died Thursday, May 11, at his residence.

He was born Jan. 12, 1939, in Houston; the son of Clinton Wade and Josephine Freeman. He served in the U.S. Army and was employed as a master welder by Trinity Steel for seven years.

Survivors include a daughter, Kimberly Laine Freeman; two sons, Bryan Shayne Freeman and Clinton Chance Freeman; two sisters, Doris Honick and Gearldine Stevens; two stepdaughters, Nina and Lisa; 10 grandchildren, Nicole and her husband Daniel, Shawna, Stephanie, Dakota, Shyann, Skylar, Brandon, Kristin, Devon and Bailey' and a special friend and caregiver, Delores Loyd.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.