

Fregia

Funeral services were held Wednesday, July 25, 2007, for Josephine Fregia, 78, of Hull, at 10:00 a.m. at Allison Funeral Service Chapel in Liberty with Rev. Merrill Cloe and Rev. Larry Luster officiating.

Josephine was born in Savannah, Georgia, on April 18, 1929, the daughter of Manuel Fernandez and Josephine Martinez. She attended St. Mary's Catholic School in Port Arthur. She married Marvin Fregia Sr. on May 25, 1946.

She was a homemaker who loved to make mayhaw jelly, baking cakes, and watching her soap operas. She was very generous, and loved giving to others. She enjoyed spending time with her family and friends.

She died on Monday, July 23, 2007, at Liberty-Dayton Community Hospital. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Marvin Fregia Sr.; one daughter, Debra Fregia Campbell; one son, Leon Fregia; one son-in-law, Ernest Elliott; two brothers, Manuel Fernandez Jr. and Floyd Fernandez; and one sister, Rose Mary Sears.

Survivors include her son, Marvin Fregia Jr. and wife, Beverly; daughter, Mary Jo Hanel and husband, Doug; one son-in-law, Roger Campbell; grandchildren, Windy Copeland and husband, Mark, Marvin Earl Elliott and wife, Patricia, Todd Wayne Fregia and wife, Lisa, Colby Dale Fregia, Adam Kenney, Tara Shannon and husband, Chad, and Erica Kenney; great-grandchildren, Coby Trent Elliott, Keisha Elliott, Sam Elliott, Tyler Copeland, Zack Fregia, Lauren Fregia, Megan Copeland and Savannah Shannon; and brothers and sisters, James Fernandez and wife, Iva Mae, Mercedes Dutton, and Ralph Fernandez.

To view the guestbook, go to www.allisonfuneralservice.com.

Allison Funeral Services, Liberty, was in charge of arrangements.