Services Held for C. D. Fryar

Clarence D. Fryar, Jr.

Clarence D. Fryar, Jr., 44, maintenance supervisor with the Nuclear Corporation here, died following a sudden illness Tuesday afternoon, March 18, at his home on Route 6, Palestine. Funeral services were held Thursday, March 20, in the Bailey Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Carrol Fancher officiating. Burial was in Land of Memory Cemetery near Palestine.

Prior to his employment at Nuclear, Mr. Fryer had been an electrician with Missouri Pacific railroad for 23 years. A Member of First United Methodist Church, he served in the Army during World War II.

Pallbearers were Ross Horton, Charles Linn, J. T. Bernard, J. Robert Wylie, Nathan Boyd, Johnny Williams, Rucker Farris and Harold Gilbert.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Betty Hamlett Fryar; a son, David Fryar and a daughter, Sheila Fryar; his mother, Mrs. C. D. Fryar, Sr., and his grandfather, A. N. Glenn, all of Palestine.

From the collection donated to the Houston County Historical Commission. This collection was part of the papers that Mrs. Nannie English had. The original is preserved to protect it from further damage.
