

#161

Ross Fullerton

Funeral services for Ross Fullerton, 58, of Slocum, were held Saturday, July 4, at 10 a.m. in the Slocum Baptist Church, with Rev. W. C. Littleton and Rev. Joohn Garlington officiating. Burial followed in Strong Memorial park, Slocum.

Pallbearers were Billy Ray Barnett, Leon Mitchell, Duke Wayne Turner, James Turner, Leroy Lusk and Bill Lasiter.

A native of Oklahoma, Mr. Fullerton was born Dec. 9, 1905. He was reared in Cherokee County, and had been a resident of Anderson County for a number of years. At the time of his death, he operated a general mercantile store in Slocum. Also, he was serving as constable, a member of the Slocum School Board, director of Houston County Electric Cooperative, president of Elkhart Lions Club, and a member of the Slocum Baptist Church. He died Thursday at 4:45 p.m. in a Palestine hospital following an extended illness.

Survivors include the wife, Mrs. Louvella Lasiter Fullerton; a son, Ronnie J. Fullerton; a daughter, Miss Judy Nan Fullerton; mother, Mrs. J. F. Fullerton; a sister, Mrs. Duke Turner, all of Slocum, several nieces and nephews.

Arrangements were by Hassell & Foster.

From the collection donated to the Houston County Historical Commission. This collection was part of the papers that Mrs. Nannie English had. The original is preserved to protect it from further damage.