

Trinity Standard May 20, 1999

Jimmie May Gann

TRINITY--Funeral services for Jimmie May Gann will be Thursday at 2 p.m. May 20 in the Church of Christ where she was the oldest member.

Mrs. Gann was born in Pollock on March 29, 1911 and died May 16 at Huntsville memorial Hospital.

She was employed for many years by Trinity Independent School District as Counselor and also as Co-op Counselor for Trinity County.

She was a member of the Trinity County Retired Teachers Association, Delta Zeta Sorority, Friends of the Library, and the Texas Forestry Association.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Brice Calhoun Gann.

Surviving is one daughter, Marilyn and husband, Bill Harris of San Antonio; grandchildren, William Maurice Harris, Jr, of Houston and Lynn and Peter Fitzmiller with their children, Lauren, Michael and Taylor Brice of Gaithersberg, MD; sister-in-law, Betty Edwards of Austin and numerous nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be William Harris, Jr., Billy Carroll Edwards, John Edwards, Jim Edwards, Mark Edwards and Craig Edwards.

Memorial contributions may be made to Trinity Ex-Students Scholarship Fund, the Blanche K. Werner Library or the Church of Christ Memorial Fund.

Visitation will be until 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Waller-Thorniton Funeral Home will be in charge of arrangements.