

Trinity Standard 2/16/2006

Christopher Ruben Golden

TRINITY - Services for Christopher Ruben Golden, 25, of Huntsville, were held at 3 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 9, 2006, in the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity with the Rev. Russell Lee officiating.

Burial followed in the Cedar Grove Cemetery in Trinity.

Mrs. Golden died Sunday, Feb. 5, in Huntsville.

Born Dec. 29, 1980, in Conroe, he was the son of Lynda Jane Hill and Ruben Elton Golden. He attended Groveton High School. Mr. Golden served in the U.S. Army in Iraq and was among the first soldier deployed there. After his tour of duty, he resided in Huntsville.

He was preceded in death by his father and two grandfathers, Otha Golden and Oscar Hill.

Survivors include his mother; paternal grandmother, Imogene Golden; maternal grandmother, Lois Hill; two brothers and their spouses, John Michael and Karen Golden and Mark and Kimberly Golden; a sister, Mary Ann Golden; an uncle and his spouse, James and Betty Hill; an aunt and her spouse, Mary and Guy Davis; and five nieces and nephews, Allison Golden, Dylan Turman, Mason Golden, Madison Golden and Austin Golden.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.