TRINITY - Services for Charles
Melvin Goolsby Jr., 63, of Trinity

Trinity Standard

June 1, 2006

will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday, June 1, 2006, in the Carlisle Chapel with Pastor Hunt officiating.

Burial will follow in the Magnolia Cemetery.

The family received friends from 6-8 p.m. on Wednesday, May 31, at Waller-Thornton Funeral Home in Trinity.

Mr. Goolsby died Saturday, May 26, in Trinity.

Born March 3, 1943, in Alameda, Calif., he was the son of the late Charles Melvin and Rattie Crawford Goolsby. Mr. Goolsby worked on the carnival circuit for many years and later worked for 20 years as a self-employed real estate broker until his retirement. After closing his business, he moved to Trinity in 1993 to enjoy fishing, hunting and the stillness of life in the woods.

He was a member of the East Texas Masonic Lodge of Houston No. 1299 and was a Shriner. He also was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Porter.

Survivors include his wife of 12 years, Jacquelyn Goolsby; three daughters and their spouses, Sherrie and Lee Dean, Kellie and Paul Burgess and Stacie and Frankie Milholen; two sons and a daughter-in-law, Kurt and Natalie Wangler and Kevin Wangler; seven grandchildren, Dena, Alicia, Amanda, Roy, Hailey, Angelina and Isaac; and three great-grandchildren, Kaleb, Damon and Katelynn.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
