Judge A. E. Gossett

It becomes our painful duty this week to record the death of Judge A. E. Gossett, an old and highly respected citizen of Crockett, which occurred Monday morning last at his residence near this city.

He was an old pioneer, having settled in Texas 56 years ago, and was a veteran in the war between Texas and Mexico, and at one time owned the land on which Crockett now stands. He was, at the time of his death, 78 years old.

Mr. Gossett was a member of the Masonic Order and was buried on Tuesday morning by that fraternity. All the business houses of the town closed and his remains were followed to the grave by a vast concourse of friends and relatives. The Courier tenders to the widow and other bereaved relatives its sympathies in their loss.
