

Grandmaiter

Funeral services for David Wallace Grandmaiter, 62, of Dayton, were held Saturday, February 24, 2007 at 3:30 p.m. at the Sterling Funeral Home Chapel in Dayton with Rev. Tony Rogers officiating. Burial followed at Palms Memorial Park Cemetery in Dayton.

He was born July 6, 1944 in Watertown, New York, the son of Wallace Grandmaiter and Mildred Roberts Grandmaiter.

David was a Meat Market Manager with Market Basket Grocery Store for the past 10 years, a devoted employee who would never consider taking a day off from work just because he was sick. He was an old fashioned man who loved children, was a wonderful father and grandfather to his own children.

Mr. Grandmaiter passed away on February 20 at his home in Dayton. He was preceded in death by his father, Wallace Grandmaiter; and sisters, Sharon Rutledge and Margaret Jean Grandmaiter.

Survivors include his wife, Patsy Grandmaiter of Dayton; children, Victor Grandmaiter and wife, Tonya, of Houston, Michael Grandmaiter and wife, Marilyn, of Spring, Tracy Grandmaiter of Brookeland, Davalyn Grandmaiter of Dayton, Jocelyn Leney of Dayton and Eric Letney of Dayton; mother, Mildred Grandmaiter of Houston; sister, Donna Van Meter of Katy; brother, Gary Grandmaiter of Hillsboro; grandchildren, Felicia Norton, Victor Keith Grandmaiter, Kristina Grandmaiter, Kara Grandmaiter, Derek Grandmaiter, Marc Grandmaiter, Brandon Grandmaiter, David Alan Huffman, Christopher Huffman, Bryce Isbell, Cameron Scott Lewis and Aidan Letney; six great-grandchildren; seven nieces and nine nephews and numerous other friends and relatives.

Sterling Funeral Home, Dayton, was in charge of arrangements.