

HCC
Jan 24, 1999

MARSHA TABOR GULLO

Mrs. Marsha Tabor Gullo, age 48, of Crockett, passed away Jan. 18, at her residence. Mrs. Gullo was born June 18, 1950, in Brownwood and had been a resident of Crockett since 1966. She had worked for over twenty years as a resource clerk for the U.S. Forest Service and served as a trustee for the Crockett Independent School District for nine years. Mrs. Gullo was a charter member and served as Second Vice President in charge of fundraising for the Davy Crockett Texas A & M Mom's Club. She was a member of the St. Francis of the Tejas Catholic Church and the St. Francis Ladies Guild.

Survivors include husband John Gullo of Crockett; daughter Nicolynn T. "Nicki" Gullo of Crockett and College Station; parents Marshall and Billye Tabor of Crockett; brother Mark Tabor of Crockett; niece Chelsea Tabor of Crockett; nephew Tyler Tabor of Crockett and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

Funeral services for Mrs. Gullo were held Jan. 21, in the St. Francis of the Tejas Catholic Church with Father Ranjan officiating. Interment followed in the Evergreen Memorial Park.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home