

Jasper

HCC
Oct 26, 2000

VERA MAUDE HACKETT

On Dec. 30, 1931 in Crockett, David and Rosetta Murphy Jordan welcomed a new daughter, Vera Maude.

She married the late Columbus Hackett on Nov. 22, 1948 in the Cut community, then moved to Houston, where she joined Progressive Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. B.J. Lewis, serving as Senior Choir president, member of Mission I, and cafeteria worker until her health no longer permitted.

She passed away on Oct. 8 in Crockett at age 68.

Survivors are six children, Charles Edward, Jacqueline Elvenia, Everne, Anthony of Houston, David of Atlanta, Ga., six adopted children, Jessie Mae, Daniel Jr., Margo, Eugenia, John, Issac of Houston, one sister Selma Price of San Francisco, two brothers Edward Jordan of Houston and Buford Jordan of Las Vegas, two aunts Bertha Hunter of Galveston, Lou Ester Booker of Crockett, 34 grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Oct. 14, Progressive Missionary Baptist Church, 944 Rev. B.J. Lewis Dr., Houston, the pastor, Rev. Raymond Hillis, officiated. Eternal resting place was Jasper Cemetery, Crockett.

McClain-Cleburn Funeral Service