A. C. Hail

A. C. Hail was born May 15, 1860 in Houston County and was killed by lightning in Palo Pinto County on the 15th of September, 1890. He was the son of Robert and Cornelia Hail and was reared on Hickory. Babe, as he was familiarly known among his friends, was a young man of strong attachments and devoted to his friends. His sudden death but illustrates the truth of the saying that "No man knows the day or the hour." He leaves quite a number of relatives and friends, who sincerely mourn his death and will remember him always for his genuine worth.
