HIGHLANDS -- Services for Frederick 'Fred' Warren Hand Jr., 36, of Trinity were held at 10 a.m. Thursday, May 20, 2004, at St. Jude Catholic Church in Highlands.

Burial followed in the White Cemetery in Highlands.

Mr. Hand died Sunday, May 16.

He was born Nov. 24, 1947, the son of Frederick Hand Sr. and Bobbie Hand.

He was employed as a sales representative in the propane/natural gas industry with Amerigas in Conroe. Mr. Hand enjoyed fishing, golfing, gardening, his pets, and especially all kinds of sports. He was known in the Baytown area for his accomplishments in basketball and baseball.

After graduating from Robert E. Lee High School in 1966, he attended Rice University and graduated from the University of Houston with a degree in marketing. His greatest joy came from spending time with his family and friends.

Mr. Hand is preceded in death by his father; a sister, Karen Hewitt; his maternal grandparents, Jodie and Jessie Hance; and his paternal grandparents, Annie and Robert Hand.

Survivors include a daughter, Paula Hand of Trinity; two sons, son, Frederick Hand III of Spring and Robert Hand of New Orleans; his mother, Bobbie Hand of Beaumont; a brother and sister-in-law, Kirk and Julie Hand of Wallisville; two grandsons, Jake and Chase Odom, both of Trinity; and a number of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Sterling White Chapel of Highlands directed the arrangements.
