

N.C.C. Thursday - January 6, 2005

ENOS HENRY HARRIS

Enos Henry Harris was born March 4, 1957 to Enos Harris and the late Lula Mae Harris of Crockett. At an early age he joined Mt. Zion Ash Baptist Church. He was a 1976 graduate of Lovelady High and attended Angelina College. On March 3, 1979 he was married to the former Sherri Rodgers. Enos worked as a Corrections Officer for the State of Texas for over 24 years attaining the rank of Captain.

Life's departure was on December 29, 2004 at the local hospital.

Survivors are: wife; Sherri, 4 daughters; She'Enos, Sherri, Vanessa, and Eneia Harris of Crockett, grandson; De'Anthony, father; Enos Harris and wife Carolyn of Houston, 2 sisters; Rose Washington and Esaricelene Ervin and husband Tom of Crockett, 3 brothers; Sedrick Harris and wife Tonya of Crockett, Hayward James Harris of Dallas, Donald Harris of South Korea, father-in-law and mother-in-law; John Henry and Johnnie Mae Rodgers of Crockett, several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Murphy

Funeral services were held Saturday, January 6, 2005, 11am, St. Luke Baptist Church, 315 South 2nd, Crockett. Rev. R.P. Taylor, pastor, Rev. Henry Lovelady, officiated. Enos was laid to rest in the Murphy Cemetery, Austonio Community, Crockett.

Casketbearers were: Calvin Rodgers, Terrell Jones, Leonard Wiley, Ravon Sherman, Tracy Rodgers, and Henry Reece.

McClain-Clebourn Funeral Service