James L. Harrison

HOUSTON -- Graveside services for James L. "Jim" Harrison, 67, of Trinity were held Thursday, March 7, 2002, in the Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Dickinson with the Rev. J. Morris officiating.

Mr. Harrison died March 4 in a Texas City hospital following a short illness. He had been staying at the Seabreeze Extended Care Facility in Texas City since November 2001.

He was born May 3, 1934, in Camden, Ark., and had been in partnership with Lou White in the operations of White Rock Storage on FM 356 nears Trinity for the past 10 years. Previously, he had been employed as a fence contractor in East Texas, an insurance adjuster and was an owner-operator of two gasoline stations on the East Coast.

Mr. Harrison was a veteran of the U.S. Army, having served in an airborne division in Germany.

Survivors include a son, Michael; a daughter, Linda; a sister, Mary Lou Dues; and seven grandchildren.
