

Lillian Lucille Harrod

LIVINGSTON -- Graveside services for Lillian Lucille Harrod, 89, of Livingston, were held Sunday, June 3, 2007, in Bluewater Cemetery, with the Rev. Rex Hendrix officiating.

Mrs. Harrod was a member of First Baptist Church of Livingston. She retired from the Livingston Independent School District, and loved gardening and quilting. She is preceded in death by her father, Byrd Moore and mother, Christaney Bethany Sumrall Moore; her husband, Ernest Harrod; son-in-law, Olan Snook; four brothers and five sisters.

She is survived by her daughter, Nina L. Snook of Soda; grandsons, David L. Burns and wife Melinda, Steven Burns and wife Tina and Terry Burns and wife Terri; great-grandchildren, Gillian Carr and husband Jason, Sgt. Cody Burns, USMC, and wife Jennifer, Callie Burns, Erin Barnes and husband Jeremiah, Decil Burns and Peyton Burns; great-great-granddaughters, Ella Rose Carr, Aubery Barnes and Addison Barnes and one sister, Inez Preshaw.

Pallbearers were David L. Burns, Steven Burns, Terry Burns, Cody Burns, Decil Burns, Jason Carr and Jeremiah Barnes.

To sign the online guestbook, go to pacefuneral.com. Pace Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.