Mrs. Maude Irene Hassell

Funeral services for Mrs. Maude Irene Hassell, 87, of 6233 University, Dallas, were held Tuesday, June 14, at 1 p.m. in Hassel and Foster Chapel with the Rev. Derwin Walker, Methodist minister, officiating. Burial was in the Evergreen Cemeetry, Percilla. Nephews served as pallbearers.

Mrs. Hassell was born April 25, 1879, in Texas, and was a daughter of the late T. C. Lively and Mrs. Emma Butler Lively. Former resident of Anderson and Houston Counties, she had lived in Dallas for the past two years, and died there Monday, June 13, at 9 a.m., following a long illness.

Survivors include one son, William W. Sewell of Dallas; two brothers, Earl Lively of Palestine, and Ben Lively of Jasper; three sisters, Mrs. Lou Holcomb of Freeport, Mrs. Pearl Sloan and Mrs. Dot Killough, both of Grapeland, and a granddaughter, Mrs. Betty Irene Overstreet of Long Island, N. Y.; and several nieces and nephews.

Arrangements were by Hassell and Foster.

From the collection donated to the Houston County Historical Commission. This collection was part of the papers that Mrs. Nannie English had. The original is preserved to protect it from further damage.
