Maude A. Haynie

Mrs. Maude A. Haynie, 87, of Wichita Falls, died Monday in a local nursing home following a long illness. Funeral services will be held Thursday in Hassell & Foster Chapel with the Rev. Carroll Fancher officiating. Burial will be in the Jacksonville Cemetery. The body will be at Hassell & Foster until after chapel rites.

Mrs. Haynie was born September 23, 1882 in Albany, Georgia. She lived in Jacksonville, a number of years, later moving to Wichita Falls, where she was a member of the Order of the eastern Star, and the Rebekah Lodge. She was employed as a sales clerk in a department store for a number of years. A Methodist, she was the widow of Will Haynie, who died in October 1926.

Survivors include a son, Wilson P. Jowers of 118 Brierwood Dr., Palestine; a grandson, C. W. Scott, Jr. of Austin; a great granddaughter, Miss Sue Ann Scott of Austin.

From the collection donated to the Houston County Historical Commission. This collection was part of the papers that Mrs. Nannie English had. The original is preserved to protect it from further damage.
