ALLINE LANGHAM
HENDERSON

Mrs. Alline Langham Henderson, age 93 of Waco, formerly of Buchanan Dam, passed away March 26, 2004 in Waco. Mrs. Henderson was born to George and Alline Brooks Langham on October 7, 1910 in Atoka. Mrs. Henderson was a member of the Genealogical Society of Burnet and traveled the states and the world in search of her family roots. Mrs. Henderson also in 1986 published a book of the Langham Lineage in America. Mrs. Henderson was so proud of the book and all the traveling to acquire the information for it.

Survivors include her children George Glazener and wife Helen, of Lewisville, and Linda Garland, of Waco; sisters Etha Vickers of Austonio, Eloise Delaney, of Crockett, Octava Tharp and husband Homer, of Huntsville, Judy Pope, of Austonio, and Joyce Foreman, of West Columbia; eight grandchildren; fourteen great-grandchildren; and six great-great-grandchildren.

Preceded in death by her father and mother; sister Rosella Keefer; brother George Langham; and husbands Lovic Glazener, Horace Wallace and C.B. Henderson.

Graveside services for Mrs. Alline Langham Henderson were held Friday, March 26, at 3:00 p.m. at Lakeland Hills Memorial Park in Burnet.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Davis Cemetery Fund in Crockett, TX., or a charity of your choice.
