

Hobby Hendrix

LIVINGSTON – Funeral services for Hobby Hendrix, 88, were held Saturday, May 19, 2007, in the Cochran Funeral Home Chapel, with Bro. Rex Hendrix officiating. Burial followed in Big Sandy Cemetery in Dallardsville.

Mr. Hendrix died Wednesday, May 16, in Memorial Medical Center – Livingston. He was born July 24, 1918 in Dallardsville, the son of Jose and Pearl Bailey Hendrix. He was preceded in death by his wife, Bessie; his parents; brothers, T.J. Hendrix and Elton Hendrix and sisters, Zelma Lilley, Juanita Harrison, Lola Mae Williams and Margaret Ashen.

Survivors include his daughter, Bobbie Jones of Houston; sons, Flynn Hendrix of Big Sandy, Lynn Hendrix of Big Sandy and Joe Hendrix of Houston; grandsons, Greg Hendrix and wife Amy of Livingston, Trent Hendrix and wife Shawna of Livingston, Travis Hendrix and wife Tracy of Big Sandy, Jason Hendrix and wife Heather of Houston, Josh Hendrix of Houston and Jesse Hendrix of Big Sandy; granddaughters, Stacy Gross and husband Eric of Houston and Brandi Hernandez of Houston; great-grandchildren, Joseph and Travis Hendrix of Big Sandy, Davis, Grant and Anna Hendrix of Livingston, Jacob and William Gross of Houston, Hunter Hendrix of Livingston and Grace Hendrix of Houston; brother, Nathan Hendrix of Big Sandy and sister, Bennie Sanders of Baytown.

Pallbearers were Jason Hendrix, Travis Hendrix, Greg Hendrix, Trent Hendrix, Josh Hendrix and Edwin Hendrix.