

Hendrix

Graveside services were held on Tuesday, July 31, 2007 for William Robert Hendrix, 67, at the Rocky Creek Cemetery under the direction of Davis-Morris Funeral Home.

He grew up in the Gulf Coast area, mainly in Houston. At the age of 17 he was married to Judith D. Bonetati, and they had two children, Dean and Rusty Hendrix. Shortly after he married, he was accepted by the U.S. Marines, realizing one of his boyhood dreams.

At the age of 25, he became a follower of Jesus Christ and was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. He was known as, Randy Hendrix, and had two more sons, Jacob and Brad, while married to Patricia Harper. During the last ten years of his life he was married to Jean Barney from Rochester, New York. He was truly a jack of all trades, with an entrepreneur spirit. He always had a new idea for a new business venture or the next big wave. Mostly, he loved his family, and would have given whatever he had to anyone in need.

Mr. Hendrix passed away peacefully on July 29, 2007 in Brownwood.

Survivors include his wife, Jean Barney of Brownwood; mother, Thelma Louise Bivens of Mayflower, Alaska; siblings, Leon Hendrix and wife, June and Thelma Lynn Hester, all of Houston; children, Dean and wife, Lisa, of Missoula, Montana, Rusty and wife, Julie, Jacob and wife, Tina, and Brad and wife, Elise, all of Houston and Jan Wilson and husband, Roger, of Fort Worth; 17 grandchildren; five step-children; and several nieces and nephews. He is also survived by Dean and Rusty's mother, Judy Hendrix and Jacob, Brad and Jan's mother, Pat Harper.
