

HC 1
2000

CECELIA H.
HILDBRAND

Mrs. Cecelia H. Hildbrand age 89 of Spring, formerly of Crockett, passed away Monday, July 31, 2000 in Spring. Mrs. Hildbrand was born June 23, 1911 in Indian Oil, Neb.

Mrs. Hildbrand, often known as "Mama Mole" was a homemaker for several years, focused on relationships with God, family and friends. Flowers, "leprechauns," teddy bears, and all kinds of little things brought her pleasure and she was adept at injecting little bits of joy into other people's lives. She enjoyed needlecrafts, baking, and people. She and her husband, Lowell always did things together and she will be sorely missed. Her last words were, "I love you."

Survivors include husband Lowell Hildbrand of Spring; daughter Kathleen H. Johnson and husband L. Pete of Spring; brother Dan Harrison and wife Evelyn of Fredricksburg; sister-in-law Thelma Winters of Portland, Mary Harrison of Tacoma, Wash.; two grandchildren; numerous other relatives and friends.

Pallbearers were Roy Beard, Dave Shaw, Henry Beard, Jim Tessio and Chris Diehl.

Funeral services were held Friday, Aug. 4 at 10 a.m. at the St. Francis of the Tejas Catholic Church in Crockett with Father Rajan and Monsignor David W. Kennedy officiating. Interment followed in the Forest Park-Westheimer Cemetery in Houston.

There will be a Memorial Mass in Conroe's Sacred Heart Catholic Church Tuesday, Aug. 8 at 10 a.m.

Clayton • Waller-Ramsey
Funeral Home