

Lloyd Elbert "Tuffy" Hill

LIVINGSTON – Lloyd Elbert "Tuffy" Hill died March 9, 2007 at his residence.

He was born Nov. 28, 1914 in Woden, Nacogdoches County. He was preceded in death by his wife of 64 years, Ersel Jarrett Hill. He was the son of Robert L. Hill and Ella Barbara Coats Hill.

Mr. Hill was a retired sawmill sawyer. He loved fishing, hunting, gardening and playing dominos with his friends at the Senior Citizens' Nutrition Center.

He is survived by three children, Lloyd Hill Jr. and wife Nancy of Springerville, Ariz., Bettye Knox of San Antonio and Royce Hill and wife Effie of Woodville; sister, Maurine Inman and husband Wilton of Jasper; brother, Maurice Hill and wife Mildred of Lufkin; seven grandchildren, Leslie Knox, Keith Knox, Stephanie Huber, Stephen Hill, Carey Unruh, Jonathan Hill and Jeremiah Hill and seven great-grandchildren, Meredith Ludlam, Natalie Ludlam, Ryan Knox, Sophie Knox, Jarrett Huber, Emily Huber and Sophia Unruh.

Mr. Hill was a member of Central Baptist Church.

Pallbearers were Keith Knox, Stephen Hill, Jonathan Hill, Jeremiah Hill, Bruce Horton and Hunt Huber.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, March 13, in the Cochran Funeral Home Chapel, with the Rev. Glenn Price officiating. A graveside service followed in Jones Prairie Cemetery in Leggett.