Dwight Ewing Hine

TRINITY -- Graveside services for retired Trinity High School teacher Dwight Ewing Hine, 94, of Huntsville will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 18, 2000 in the Addicks Addition, Oakwood Cemetery in Huntsville.

A memorial service will be held at 12:30 p.m. Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church in Trinity.

Viewing will be Friday, Nov. 17, at the Trinity Funeral Home.

He was born Dec. 15, 1915 on the original Hine farm in Milam County near Davilla. He was the eldest son of Alice Harman and David Dwight Hine and grew up in the farming communities of Davilla and Val Verde. He was graduated from high school in Holland, Texas, and obtained his undergraduate and later masters degrees from Sam Houston State Teachers College (now Sam Houston State University) in Huntsville.

He was a coach and vocational agriculture teacher in Davilla, Buckholts and Sharp in central Texas. He retired as a vocational agriculture teacher in Trinity.

Mr. Hine was active in civic and church affairs and serves as an elder in the Presbyterian churches in Sharp and Trinity.

He was preceded in death by his infant son, Thomas Dwight Hine; his parents; and two brothers, Donald Harman Hine and Homer Edwin Hine.

Survivors include his wife of almost 60 years, Ima Belle Owens Hine; two daughters and their spouses, Sandra and David Noles and Judith and Ron Le Fan; two granddaughters and a grandson-in-law, Stephanie and Randy Wean and Susannah Noles; a sister, Mary Lee Hine Cliburn; and numerous nieces, nephews, former students and friends.

The family has asked that memorial contributions be given to the Hine Presbyterian Scholarship Fund in Trinity; the Val Verde Baptist Church Cemetery Fund, Val Verde Baptist Church in Val Verde; or to diabetes research funds.

Trinity Funeral Home is directing the arrangements.
