

Fred J. Hirsch

TOMBALL -- Services for Fred J. Hirsch, 91, of Cleveland were held at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 23, 2001, in the Klein Funeral Chapel in Tomball.

Burial followed at Memorial Oaks Cemetery.

Mr. Hirsch died Monday, June 18.

He was born Nov. 18, 1909, in Tomball and had a lifetime career in pipeline related construction. He was an avid hunter and fisherman but his true love came from gardening and sharing his crops with friends and family. Mr. Hirsch also was an organizer and elder of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Cleveland.

He was preceded in death by his parents, William and Anna Hirsch; and granddaughter, Debra Lee McKenzie.

Survivors include his wife of 67 years, Lucy Hirsch; a daughter, Maureen Hirsch of Cleveland; a son and daughter-in-law, Bubba and Marty Hirsch of Trinity; a sister, Dora Hold of Tomball; a brother and sister-in-law, Bill and Ruth Hirsch of Dallas; one granddaughter, Holly Ann Hirsch; and a number of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Klein Funeral Chapel of Tomball directed the arrangements.
