

Trinity Standard
May 18, 2006

Carl Amos 'Pops' Howard

TRINITY - Services for Carl Amos "Pops" Howard, 65, of Trinity were held at 11 a.m. Monday, May 15, 2006, in the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home in Trinity.

Mr. Howard died Friday, May 12, in Conroe.

He was born May 31, 1940, in Harlingen, the son of Adney Calvin and Maude Era Gregory Howard. He was employed as a iron worker in the steel industry. He enjoyed traveling out of state and his leisure time was spent at his pond fishing.

He was preceded in death by a son, Larry Duane Howard; and two daughters, Monica Lynn Howard and Sherri Lynette Howard.

Survivors include his wife of 46 years, Rosemary Walling Howard; two brothers, Wayne Howard and A.C. Howard Jr.; a sister, Dorothy Howard; brother-in-laws and sister-in-laws, Judy and Frank Davidson, Violet and Richard Wood and Gerald and Lisa Walling; special friends, Debbie and Larry Englehardt; a number of nieces and nephews; and his loyal dog, Sassy.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home directed the arrangements.