

Charles Edward Hoyt

TRINITY -- Charles Edward Hoyt, 90, of Huntsville died Sunday, April 15, 2001, in Huntsville.

Mr. Hoyt was born July 3, 1910 in Sulphur Rock, Ark. During his life, he served as a railroad telegrapher for Ajax Oil Company and as a station agent for the MNA Railroad. He was a member of the Woodriver Masonic Lodge No. 1062 AF&AM in Woodriver, Ill.

Survivors include his wife, Willa Hughes Hoyt of Huntsville; four sons, Charles Hoyt Jr. of Riverside, Don Hoyt of Katy, Bob Hoyt and Bruce Hoyt, both of Bakersfield, Calif.; two daughters, Janna Hoyt of Reno, Nev., and Almeda Hoyt of Huntsville; one sister, Margerite Decoeq of Joplin, Mo.; 17 grandchildren; 32 great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren.

Trinity Funeral Home directed the arrangements.