

Trinity Standard

June 16, 2005

Clapp

Herman Leonard Huffman

TRINITY - Services for Herman Leonard Huffman, 73, of Olney were held at 11 a.m. Friday, June 10, 2005, at the Trinity Funeral Home Chapel of the Chimes in Trinity with the Rev. A. Leroy Brown, pastor of Dorcas Wills Memorial Baptist Church, and the Rev. Maury Blair officiating.

Burial followed in Clapp Cemetery.

Mr. Huffman died Tuesday, June 7, in Olney.

Born Feb. 28, 1932, in Lovelady, Mr. Huffman was a former resident of Trinity. He was a former commander of the Roy Trow American Legion Post No. 314 in Trinity and was retired after serving 20 years as a member of the Trinity Volunteer Fire Department.

Mr. Huffman was a retired member of the City of Olney maintenance department.

Survivors included his wife, Peggy Green Huffman; three children and their spouses, Hollis and Tommy Ragsdale of Burkeburnett, Billy Paul and Christi Ragsdale of Iowa Park and Renie and Scott Horry of Olney; three brothers and their spouses, Hayne and Sue Huffman, Wayne and Alice Huffman, John Floyd and Lois Huffman, all of Trinity; a mother-in-law, Belle Coffman of Olney; two brothers-in-law and a spouse, Bill Green of Olney and John and Caro-nell, David and Melissa Coffman, Michael and Kathy Coffman and Misty and Robert Roark; four great-grandchildren, Jacky Perry, Claire Coffman, Joshua Coffman and Sydney Coffman; two step-grandchildren and their spouses, Melissa and Gerry Duncan and Kevin and Wendy Parish; one step-great-grandson, Nicholas Parish; and a number of nieces, nephews and special friends.

Pallbearers included Michael Coff, K.D. Dunlap, Dan Barnes, Robert Roark, Ralph Lane and Charles Stansell.

Honorary pallbearers were David Coff and Michael Mainer.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.