

Douglas Ray Hughes

TRINITY -- Services for Douglas Ray Hughes, 65, of Trinity were held at 10 a.m. Monday, Aug. 11, 2003, at the Lucas-Thompson Funeral Home in Grapevine.

Burial followed in the Grapevine Cemetery.

Mr. Hughes died Wednesday, Aug. 6, at his residence.

He was born Aug. 28, 1937, in Gatesville, the son of the late Horace and Eva Opal Hughes. After serving in the U.S. Air Force from 1955 to 1966, he was employed by the Oklahoma City Police Department, Grapevine Police Department and served as the chief of police for the South Lake Police Department for seven years. He was later self-employed in the mobile home moving business.

Mr. Hughes was a member of the Rejoice Lutheran Church of Grapevine and attended the Dorcas Wills Memorial Baptist Church in Trinity.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Carla Gale Hughes, in 1989 and by three sisters, Sarah Frances (Sally) Bowen, Joy Heinisch and Alma May.

Survivors include his wife of 12 years, Janice Hughes; a son, Gregory Alan Hughes of Douglas; two daughters, Linda Kay Dean of Fort Worth and Amy Lynn Johnson of Keller; two stepchildren, Greg ~~Johnson~~, ~~Chad~~ Mercks, Dawn ~~Am~~ ~~and~~ ~~David~~ Wagner, all of Iowa; two brothers and sisters, ~~Lois~~ Lawrence, Marion Hughes, H.A. Hughes and Harold Hughes; six grandchildren, Jennifer Hughes, Amber Dean, Ashley Dean, Kirstie Johnson, Cheyanne Johnson, and Ariel Johnson; nine step-grandchildren; and numerous nieces, nephews and friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that contributions be made to Dorcas Wills Memorial Baptist Church, P.O. Box 112, Trinity, Texas 75862.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity and the Lucas-Thompson Funeral Home of Grapevine directed the arrangements.