

HCC

LUCILE LIVINGSTON HUGHES

Lucile Livingston Hughes, passed away Sunday, March 16, 1997. Mr. Green was born in Lovelady to the late Jessie and Delia Livingston. She attended Center Grove High and Mary Allen College. Mrs. Hughes was baptized into the Church of The Living God at an early age under the leadership of Bishop Davis. After moving to California in the 1940's, she remained faithful to the church and God's word. She met and married the late McKinley Hughes. She was ordained an evangelist, teaching God's word to any one that would listen. She was a faithful teacher and watchman for the church in Madera, Calif. until she moved to Houston in 1996. Her illness slowed her activities. God and his house were always her first love.

Survivors include her sister, Jessie Mae Hughes of Houston; aunt, Katie Spillar Littles of Lovelady; step-son, Jessie B. Owens of San Luis Obispo, Calif.; sister-in-law, Ethel Livingston of Lovelady; four nieces, Johnnie L. Johnson, Susie L. Wesley, Shirley Ann Livingston of Houston, Bettye L. Cotton of Huntsville; nephews, James E. Livingston and wife, Hattie of Lovelady, Charles W. Livingston and wife, Wanda of Humble, Wilburn H. Livingston of Houston; a host of other relatives and many many friends.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hughes were held Saturday, March 22 at the Church of The Living God Temple #26 in Houston with D.L. Harrison officiating. Interment followed.

Barkley Mortuary