

Clyde Manly Hume

TRINITY -- Memorial services for Clyde Manly Hume, 97, of Trinity were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 10, 2003, at the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home in Trinity.

Mr. Hume, the last of 15 children, died Monday, Sept. 8.

He was born Oct. 22, 1905 in Creston, MT., the son of the late Robert and Hannah Hume. He was married to Geraldine Roush in 1927 and the couple had two sons, Clyde Hume Jr. and Bill Hume.

Mr. Hume was a talented musician and once formed an orchestra in Kalispell, MT., with his brother, Howard, in which he played the drums. His is fondly remembered by his grandchild for playing the ukulele around the holidays.

During his lifetime, Mr. Hume had a number of occupations. He worked as a mechanic and at a music company in Montana. When he moved to Seattle, Wash., he worked for the Port of Embarkation before starting a cabinetry business called Enterprise Manufacturing Co.

After his cabinetry business, he started a real estate company and in 1961 he purchased a bowling alley in Puyallup, Wash.

He met his second wife, Thelma, in Klamath Fall, Oregon, and they were married in 1967. They spent the next 35 years acquiring real estate and rental properties throughout Oregon and Washington before retiring to Trinity.

Mr. Hume was an outdoorsman who loved hunting and fishing as well as bowling and golfing.

Survivors include his wife, Thelma; a son and daughter-in-law, Clyde and Vada Hume; a daughter-in-law, Lyla; a stepdaughter, Linnæa; nine grandchildren, Kathy, Janet, Pati, Linda, JoAnne, Jodelle, Carmen, Ken and Steve; 21 great-grandchildren; and six great-great-grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that donations be made to the Elevator Fund at the Dorcas Walls Memorial Baptist Church, Trinity, Texas 75862 or to the Boys and Girls Club of Trinity, P.O. Box 665, Trinity, Texas 75862.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
