Floyd Leon Hunter

Mr. Floyd Leon Hunter, 77, of Crockett, died Sunday afternoon in a local hospital.

Mr. Hunter was born Oct. 21, 1892, in Tennessee, but had lived in Crockett for many years. He was a veteran of World War I, and was a member of the First Methodist Church of Crockett.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Callaway Memorial Chapel, with Rev. J. H. Rhodes, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was in Evergreen Memorial Park in Crockett.

Pallbearers were Harold Clark, Floyd Muehlenberger, George Lane, Tom Rhoden, J. D. Sims and J. E. Womack.

Survivors include the wife, Mrs. Mary Hunter of Crockett; three sons, Floyd Hunter Jr. of Oklahoma City and William J. and Richard A. Hunter, both of Lubbock; a daughter, Mrs. Burnette Penkert of Abilene; a sister, Mrs. Ozelle Erwin of Hendersonville, Tenn.; two brothers, S. B. Hunter of San Antonio and W. J. Hunter of Rosemead, Calif.; 11 grandchildren; and three great grandchildren.

Callaway Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

From the collection donated to the Houston County Historical Commission. This collection was part of the papers that Mrs. Nannie English had. The original is preserved to protect it from further damage.
