

Forest Lawn

MARY ETTA JACKSON HUNTER

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Etta Jackson Hunter, age 88, were held Sat., Dec. 28, 11a.m., Bethel Baptist Church, North 6th, Crockett, the pastor, Rev. William Chavers, and Rev. James L. Newman, officiated. Eternal resting place will be in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Active Casketbearers were: George Davis, Earl Wayne Jones, Henry Ford Reece II, Reginald Smith, John Thompson, Xavier Wooten.

Mary Etta was the 2nd of 7 children born to Hiram and Emma Lusk Jackson on June 8, 1914, in Crockett. While very young, Mary Etta was baptized in St. Andrew A.M.W. Church where she remained a faithful member until death. She was a very dedicated worker whose Christianity was exemplified in the community and elsewhere by all with whom she made contact.

Mary Etta was formally educated in the Crockett Schools, Mary Allen College, Paul Quinn College, Prairie View A.&M. and Texas Southern University. She was always a student with high academic and other honors. She was always a student with high academic and other honors. She retired as a teacher in 1980, always exemplifying a loving and caring spirit, thus winning the love and respect of her students as well as coworkers.

Mary Etta passed away Dec. 23 in a Houston Hospital.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Viel R. Hunter, parents, 1 brother, James H. Jackson, 2 sisters, Susie B. Wooten, Wilma Williams, 1 grandchild, Mona R. Fields.

Survivors are: 1 son; Danny James Hunter of Houston, 3 daughters; Lois LaVerne Fields and husband Chester Arthur of Killeen, Emma Ruth Hunter and Anita Rose Warren and husband Fredrick Earl of Houston, 1 brother; Chester A. Jackson and wife Dorothy of Fayetteville, North Carolina, 2 sisters; Emma Lou Walton and husband Sullivan of Dallas, Lola Reece and husband Henry Ford of Crockett, 1 sister in law; Ivy Newman of Crockett, 5 grandchildren, 1 great-grandchild, numerous other nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

McClain-Cleburn Funeral Service