

Larry Ingram

GROVETON – A memorial service for Larry Ingram was held Saturday, July 28, 2007, at Trinity County's Bennett Cemetery in Apple Springs. Brother Lester McAdams officiating and the eulogy was given by Michelle Lockhart, cousin. Mr. Ingram's ashes were interred in the Ingram Family plot.

Robert Larry Ingram, 60, died Monday, July 16, 2007, in a Wisconsin hospital. He was born Oct. 7, 1946 in Lufkin to parents James Robert "Sonny" and Mary Kathryn Alexander Ingram and grew up in the Houston Heights. Mr. Ingram called Houston home most of his life.

As a child he enjoyed spending time at the Trinity County home of his paternal grandparents, John Edgar and Lillie Roach Ingram, known to their eight grandchildren as "Heavy Daddy" and "Goodmama." He was especially close to cousin John Edward "Johnny" Hollis. The two boys were born less than one day apart at a Lufkin hospital, with Larry being the oldest, born on Oct. 7 and Johnny on the 8th.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Kathryn Alexander Ingram (June, 2002) and James R. "Bob" Ingram (October, 2003); his brother, Paul Allen Ingram (October, 1993); paternal grandparents, J.E. Ingram (January, 1977) and Lillie R. Ingram (November, 1979); his cousin, Johnny Hollis, who died in Vietnam (November, 1970); aunt, Virginia Ingram Arnold (February, 2002) and uncles, Norman G. Arnold (January, 1987) and Robert R. "Bob" Lockhart (March, 1975).

Mr. Ingram is survived by partner, Kathy Fontaine Ingram of Rudolph, Wis.; son, Gerald A. Ingram and wife Kim of Waller; daughter, Cindy Ingram O'Neal and husband Marcus of Fort Worth; sister, Kathy Ingram Wright and husband Craig of Round Rock; aunt, Elaine Ingram Lockhart of Apple Springs; former wife and mother of his two children, Sandra Coburn Herron of Magnolia; stepmother, Charlene Ingram of Humble; six grandchildren, Billy Hunt III, Danielle Hunt, Brandy Hunt, Gabby Ingram, Miranda Ingram and Katie Ingram; six great-grandchildren and other family and friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial contributions be sent to the Bennett Cemetery Association, 227 Max Due Road, Groveton, Texas 75845.
