

HCC 5-28-06

FRANK WOODROW
"JACKO" JACKSON ✓

Mr. Frank Woodrow "Jacko" Jackson, age 88 of Galveston, passed away Saturday, May 20, 2006 in his home surrounded by loved ones. Mr. Jackson was born the fifth of six children to the late Elizabeth Wright Jackson and Aaron Harris Jackson of Thompson, Texas. Mr. Jackson lived the duration of his lifetime in Galveston, where his excellence in football earned him his nickname "Terror."

Mr. Jackson graduated from Central High Class of 1934-1937. Mr. Jackson also held membership in Galveston's Masonic Order and Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church. He worked for Maritime I.L.A. Local 851 Galveston for a number of years until his retirement in 1975.

Survivors include sister Helen Jackson Bolden, of Galveston; daughters Mary Elizabeth Jones-Evans and husband Donald, of Fresno, Cynthia Ann Jones-Howard, of Galveston and Barbara Jean and husband Theodore, of Winston; sons Woodrow Jackson Jones, Sr. and wife Freddie, of Crockett, Daniel Mark Jones, of Galveston and James Miller and wife Rena, of St. Louis, Mo.; adoptive sons Tyrone Jones and wife Puddine, of Galveston, Eric Jones and wife Tasha, of San Bernardino, CA; adoptive daughters Eileen M. Jones, of LaMarque, Arthurine Jones, of Texas City; devoted daughter Jennifer Jones, of Galveston; friend Vivian E. Jones, of Galveston; grandchildren, great grandchildren, many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Preceded in death by his mother, Elizabeth Wright-Jackson; father Aaron Harris Jackson; brothers William Jackson, Aaron Jackson and Robert Jackson

Funeral services for Mr. Frank Woodrow Jackson "Jacko" were held Saturday, May 27, 2006 at 1:00 p.m. at Mt. Olive Baptist Church with Pastor Norris D. Burkley Sr. officiating. Interment followed in Lakeview Cemetery in Galveston.

Pallbearers were Deacons of Mt. Olive Church.

E.R. Johnson Family
Mortuary