Jackson Rites In Houston

The homegoing celebration for Mr. Frank Jackson of Houston was held Thursday, February 10, in the Christian Rescue Mission Church, Houston, with Bill Clair Mortuary in charge.

Left to cherish his memory is a loving mother, Mrs. Fannie (Taylor) Jackson of Houston; three sisters and a brother-in-law, Esther and Donald Wagner and Debra Jackson, all of Houston, and Merceena Jackson of Grapeland; five brothers and two sisters-in-law, Joe Jr. and Teral Jackson of Boston, Massachusetts, James Jackson of Houston, Donald Jackson of Herndon, Virginia, Henry and Myra Jackson of Jacksonville, Florida, and Bobby Jackson of Lufkin; seven nieces; seven nephews including a special nephew Dale Jackson of Houston; and a host of other relatives and friends.

"In My Home Over There"

I've closed my eyes and fell asleep,

Don't you cry, please don't weep.

I'll be happy in a land so fair,
in my home over there.

perhaps you're saying, this can't be real;

Or you really don't know how to feel.

The Death Angel just came for me,

Don't worry at all, because I am free.

My Heavenly Father knew what was best,

He came so I could get some rest.

I'll have no more burdens to bear,

in my home over there.

You should know I loved all of you,

And I know what you're going through;

Just hold one another's hand.

You will make it. I know you can.

Continue to look to the hills,

Don't forget to do God's will.

I'll be waiting for you in the air,

in my home over there.
