

December 16, 2007

Polk Co. Enterprise

Richard E. Jackson Sr.

LIVINGSTON – A Mass of Christian Burial for Richard E. Jackson Sr., 77, was held Wednesday, Dec. 5, 2007, in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, with Father Clifton Labbe, S.V.D, officiating. A Rosary was held in the Pace Funeral Home Chapel on Tuesday evening, with visitation following.

Mr. Jackson died Sunday, Dec. 2, at his residence. He was born Nov. 6, 1930 and had resided in Livingston for 17 years.

He retired from Texas City Terminal as a railroad yard master and was also in the U.S. Army as a master sergeant during the Korean War. He belonged to the Knights of Columbus as a 4th Degree commander.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Edwin S. and Madeline Jackson and one son, Ronald E. Jackson.

He is survived by his wife, Patsy Jackson, to whom he was married for 58 years; three sons and daughters-in-law, Donald and Sandra Jackson of Dickinson, Richard Jackson Jr. and Lori of Manvel and John Jackson and Penny of Santa Fe; two daughters and sons-in-law, Jeanette Jackson Froyd and husband John of Livingston and Patricia Jackson Hall and husband Gerald of Texas City; one sister, Dolores J. Poljak; 14 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and a host of family and friends.

Pallbearers were Donald E. Jackson, Richard E. Jackson, Jr., John T. Jackson, Gerald R. Hall, Jason R. Glasgow and Frank Borgesi. Honorary pallbearers were the Knights of Columbus.

To sign the online guestbook, go to pacefuneral.com.