

Trinity Standard 10/15/98

Elwyn Clarence Johnson

EAST BERNARD--Funeral services for Elwyn Clarence Johnson, age 65, of East Bernard were conducted at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the First United Methodist Church with the Rev. Michael Holcomb officiating. Burial followed in Methodist Cemetery.

Mr. Johnson died Sunday, Oct 4 at Vencor Hospital in Houston.

He was born in Yankton, South Dakota on Feb. 2, 1933.

He grew up in Trinity and served in the Army during the Korean conflict.

Mr. Johnson attended Lon Morris College and Sam Houston State University.

He was a member of the First United Methodist Church in East Bernard.

For the past 35 years, Elwyn and his wife, Alice, made their home in East Bernard where he taught in the math and physics department at East Bernard High School.

He was preceded in death by parents, Clarence and Esther Johnson and by his brother, Willis Johnson.

He is survived by his wife of 35 years, Alice Kitkoski Johnson of East Bernard; a sister, Phyllis Johnson Smith of Cleveland; a sister-in-law, Margie Johnson of Huntsville, a special nephew, Keith Johnson and wife, Diane and their children, Chad, Crystal and Tammie; granddaughter, Ciere; brother-in-law, Adam Kitkowski and wife, Bernice; several nieces and nephews along with many good friends.

Pallbearers were George Curtis, Joe Sodalak, Larry Tichacek, Victor Tichacek, David Pavlicek, and Jerry Boettcher.

Memorials may be made to a favorite charity.