

Grapeland
Messenger
2000

Antioch
Lovelady

Memorial Day Services For Father Of Local Resident

Services for Mr. Floyd Joseph Johnson of Trinity were held on Memorial Day, May 29, at Waller-Thornton Funeral Chapel, Trinity. Interment was in the Antioch Cemetery.

Mr. Johnson was born in Conroe on February 2, 1932. He passed away on Friday, May 26, 2000. Mr. Johnson served six years in the Korean War with two honorable discharges. He had many trades including electrician, salesman, and chef. He went to art school and loved to paint beautiful pictures for his family and friends.

"Our dad had the greatest sense of humor," says his daughter, Kay Cooper of Grapeland. "He was one of a kind. We will miss the music of his laughter and the twinkle of his eyes. Because of his love of the Lord, we know we will see him again in Heaven," she added.

Preceding him in death were his parents, Willie Johnson and Ethel Lou Blair, twin brother Lloyd and little brother Huey.

Survivors include his daughters and sons-in-law, Valerie and Richard Archulettie of Colorado, Mayonie and Gerry Burke of Colorado, Kimberly Ashby of Clear Lake, Kay and Don Cooper of Grapeland, and Shelley Stillings of Conroe; sons and daughters-in-law, Gary and Joyce Johnson of West Virginia, Terry and Donna Johnson of Colorado, Floyd II and Marla Johnson of Crockett and Huey and Velda Johnson; his wife, Bernice Johnson of Trinity; twenty-three grandchildren, Ricky, Christopher, and Nicole Archulettie, Brooke, Andrea, Ashley and Jeremiah Johnson, Daniel and Tom Johnson, Ryan and Erien Burke, Christopher, Brandon and Jessica Ashby, Andrew and Emily Cooper, Joey and Jaime Johnson, Tracey and Cody Stillings, Jaime Villarreal, Gary and Elisa Botello; one great granddaughter, Savannah Archulettie; two sisters, Ruby and Ruth; one half-brother, T.O.; half-sister, May; and his best friend for life, Jerry Kinscler and wife Mary.