

October 14, 2007

JOHNSON

Travis Allan Johnson passed away on Friday, October 5, 2007 after a long painful illness. Travis was born in Houston, Texas 17 years ago on September 18, 1990. Travis was a fun loving child that grew up to be a very respectable young man. He was an avid hunter and enjoyed eating the game that he bagged too. Baseball was a sport that was trilling to him. He loved playing ball and going to the games. He adored his animals, which you could clearly see. Travis has so many Ribbons and Trophies they can't all be displayed. Most of all though . . . he loved his family and friends.

Waiting to meet him on the other side are his brother, Joshua Johnson; great-grandmother, Florence Pevehouse; grandmother, Priscilla Keeton; grandfather, Raymond Johnson. Survivors include his parents, Johnny and Deborah Johnson; grandparents, Richard Becker and wife, Mary, JoAnn Anderson; his inspirational friend, Courtney Huckabay, along with numerous Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, and many other loving and caring family members and cherished friends beyond measure.

Funeral services were Tuesday, October 9, 2007, 2 p.m. at Cornerstone Church, 27453 Hwy 105 West, Cleveland, Texas 77328. His final resting place will follow at Pace-Stancil Memorial Rest Gardens.