

J.M. Day Funeral Home

P.O. Box 220

Madisonville, Texas 77864

936-348-2621 Fax 936-348-9005*

$15.00

Ida Mae (Cannon) Johnston

away

Ida Mae Johnston, 94, of Tomball passed ~~from this life to be with the Lord~~ Thursday afternoon September 9, 2004. She was born March 23, 1910 in Callahan County to parents: Arkie (Trammel) & Thomas R. Cannon. She grew up in Madison County and moved to Houston for 35 years, then returned to live in Madisonville in 1975. She led a full and active life with her loving family, friends and neighbors. She was active in Church and and Sunday School activities a the Unity Baptist and Mount Houston Baptist Churches in Houston and in later life, the First Baptist Church in Madisonville, Texas. She dearly loved the Lord, her Family, sewing, piecing quilt tops and working in her yard tending to her flowers and gardens. The Family greatly appreciates the efforts and patience of all wh contributed to her care these past few years.

Funeral services will be Saturday September 11, 2004 @ 2:00 PM at the J. M. Day Funeral Home. Visitation will be held Friday evening 6 - 8 PM at the J. M. Day Funeral Home Chapel. Rev. Vaughn Tatum will officiate with burial to follow at Rock Prairie Cemetery.

She was preceded in death by her husband: Harvey Carrol Johnston, parents: Arkie (Trammel) and Thomas R. Cannon, brothers: baby Curtis, Oscar, Tom, Howard, Fred, Horace, and T. R., sisters: Minnie Norwood, Willie Gunn, and Edith Walton.

She is survived by: her daughter & son in law: Frances (Johnston) & Gene Jones of Tomball, and son and daughter in law: Harvey Carrol Johnston, Jr. & Dottie of Madisonville. She has 6 grandchildren: Pam Hanks, Ronnie Jones, Jessie Jones, Calvin Jones, David Johnston, and Debbie Johnston as well as 12 great-grandchildren, and 4 great-great- grandchildren.

PLEASE PRINT IN YOUR NEXT AVAILABLE EDITION

Thank you,
Patsy Conley