JEWEL DEAN WAGNER JOLLEY

Mrs. Jewel Dean Wagner Jolley, age 56, passed away Monday, February 14, 2004. Mrs. Jolley was born in Crockett on May 19, 1947 to Sam and Jewel Wagner. Growing up in the Halls Bluff Community she accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of the Union Chapel Baptist Church where she found her love for singing.

A graduate of Ralph Bunche High School, she met and married Clarence Edward Jolley on June 25, 1966 and moved to Houston. This union was blessed with the birth of two sons. Mrs. Jolley was a homemaker, was a devoted wife and mother actively involved in school activities with her children. Mrs. Jolley never strayed from her Christian upbringing as a member of St. Luke Greater Northeast, Greater New Hope and New Faith Missionary Baptist Church respectively.

Mrs. Jolley and her husband relocated to Crockett in 1987 where she worked for the Crockett Independent School District for 15 years. Mrs. Jolley was a member of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church where she served faithfully in many capacities until she was called from labor to reward.

Survivors include her husband of thirty-seven years Clarence Jolley; two sons Kenneth Jolley, of Houston and Rodney Jolley (wife Shirley), of Lufkin; parents Sam and Jewel Wagner; two sisters Georgia Murphy, of Crockett and Crezette Evans (husband Oliver), of Ft. Worth; two brothers Jimmy Wagner and Sammie Wagner, both of Crockett; mother-in-law Ida Mae Jolley, of Houston; uncle Clyde Deane, of Crockett; seven grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Funeral services for Mrs. Jewel Dean Wagner Jolley were held Saturday, February 21, at 11:00 a.m. at Bethel Missionary Baptist Church in Crockett with Rev. Anthony Jackson officiating. Interment followed.
